The City Council may by resolution cancel any proceedings initiated by their resolution, provided that any public hearing of which notice has been given shall be held.

FEES - The non-refundable filing fee of $1000.00 must be paid when petition is submitted to the City. Additional costs associated with processing the application including expenses incurred by the City Planner and outside consultants during application review, publication/notice costs and other expenses will be billed to the applicant. Thus, in addition to the $1000 filing fee, additional costs ranging from $250-$1,000 (or higher) can be expected.

PROCESS - Upon receipt of the Application/Petition for a Zoning Code Amendment, the petition will be reviewed for completeness and the applicant will be notified within three business days as to whether the petition is complete. If the petition is incomplete, the applicant will be given a list of the items missing which must be submitted back to the City within ten business days. Upon the acceptance of a complete petition, a public hearing before the Planning Commission will be set within sixty days. The public hearing will be published not less than ten days prior to the hearing date, with time and place of the hearing inviting the public to attend and make comments. If the hearing concerns a proposed amendment to the zoning map, or to initial zoning of property newly annexed to the city, additional notice shall be given by posting on the property concerned, and written notice shall be mailed, not less than ten days prior to said hearing, to the owners of all property within three hundred feet of the boundaries thereof, using for this purpose the last known names of such owners as shown upon the records of the county assessor. Failure to send notices by mail to any property owner where the address of such owner is not included in the assessor's records on the date of such mailing shall not invalidate any proceedings in connection with such amendment or reclassification.

The Planning Commission may adjourn any hearing in order to obtain additional information or to serve further notice upon such other persons as it decides may be interested in said amendment or classification. If a date for continuance of the hearing is set at the time of adjournment, persons previously notified and persons already heard need not be notified of the time of resumption of said hearing unless the Commission so decides; if no such date is set, notice as required in Section 17.56.030 shall be published in the city's legal newspaper.

If, from the facts presented at the public hearing or on investigation by the Commission, the Commission finds that the public health, safety, and/or general welfare warrant enactment of the proposed amendment and that such enactment is in compliance with the intentions and purposes of this title, it shall recommend said amendment to the Council for adoption. The decision of the Commission, whether favorable or unfavorable to the proposed amendment, shall be reported to the Council within sixty days of the filing of the petition for the proposed amendment with the Commission. If the Commission's decision is favorable, the Council shall act thereon, whether favorably or unfavorably, within thirty days of receipt of said decision. If the matter presented to the Commission is a resolution by the city Council to establish the zoning of newly annexed property, the Commission, after hearing an investigation as in this chapter provided, shall make its report and recommendation to the city Council within sixty days of the date of enactment of the resolution by the Council, and the Council shall act thereon within thirty days of the receipt of said report and recommendation. The city Council may accept or reject in whole or in part the recommendations of the Commission or may modify the proposed zoning recommended by the Commission. If the recommendation of the Commission is modified or rejected in whole or in part, the Council shall hold a public hearing, after notice as provided in Section 17.56.030, and following such hearing, the Council shall determine the zoning classification of such annexed property and shall enact an ordinance accordingly.

After a petition has been denied by the Commission or the Council, or after an ordinance has been enacted establishing the zone classification for newly annexed property, such petition for a re-zone for the classification for such newly annexed property shall not be resubmitted for re-zoning within less than one year's time unless it can be shown that conditions effecting the proposed amendment have substantially changed
